DJANGO 7.70 on a CIRCUMNAVIGATION

Christophe Mora is a young French mountain guide that decided to do a circumnavigation and chose a Django 7.70 to do it. At the time he was looking for some nice guys that wanted to share with him his adventure on different legs. He has made it to Brazil and I guess that by now he already knows how to sail LOL. So if someone want to join him (he seems to be a very nice guy) or follow his voyage this is his site:
